

Split Trust

This form should only be used where the plan is owned by one person and critical illness cover has been selected.

Use of the Trust

1. This Trust is for your protection plan and allows you to keep some benefits under the plan for yourself and to give others away.
2. This Trust can be used to allow you to receive any benefit paid on diagnosis of a critical illness if you survive the diagnosis by 30 days, but to give the benefit away if you die within this time.
3. The benefits you give away will no longer be an asset in your estate and would not normally be liable for Inheritance Tax (IHT). A liability to IHT may arise if any benefit paid following a claim remains in the Trust past the next 10-year anniversary of when the Trust was created. For more information on this, please speak to your financial adviser.

Types of Trust

1. The Retained Benefits are any benefits you choose to keep for yourself. They will be held on a Bare Trust which means that they remain your property.
2. The Gifted Benefits are the benefits of the plan you choose to give away. Under this type of trust, the Trustees are able to change your chosen beneficiaries and direct the Gifted Benefits to any other beneficiaries you refer to in the Trust. You should give the Trustees a Letter of Wishes outlining the circumstances in which they might use the powers they are given in Clause B2.

Trust administrative provisions

1. We recommend that you appoint at least two Additional Trustees. They will be responsible for making sure that the Trust Fund is paid to the beneficiaries you select, or for selecting alternative beneficiaries from the Discretionary Beneficiaries listed in Section F, Definitions.
2. By signing this form, you give the Trustees wide powers over how the Trust is administered and the Trust Fund invested, including the power to delegate the investment of the Trust Fund to an independent Fund Manager.
3. You can appoint a new Trustee or Trustees and can also remove one or more of the existing Trustees. However, there must always be at least two Trustees acting, unless a corporate body is named as Trustee.

Note

U.S. Specified Person means a U.S. citizen or tax resident individual, who either holds a U.S. Passport, a U.S. Green Card, has a U.S. residential/correspondence address or who was born in the U.S. and has not yet renounced their U.S. citizenship.
