

The top 10 best spots to enjoy a TT pint

It's that time of the year again, when the Isle of Man comes to life with the sound of thousands of roaring bike engines.

But, as we all know, the TT is not just about racing, it's about basking in a bit of sunshine (hopefully), taking in the atmosphere and having a pint or two.

As long-time sponsors of the TT Superstock Race, we at RL360° have amassed some expertise in TT atmosphere and here, in no particular order, we list our top 10 spots to enjoy a pint over TT fortnight:

The Sulby Glen Hotel, Sulby

Bikers receive a very warm Manx welcome at the legendary Sulby Glen, on one of the fastest parts of the TT course, the Sulby Straight. Packed with racing memorabilia, a pitstop at the Sulby Glen is a must for race lovers.

Bushy's Beer Tent, Douglas

Bushy's Tent is a Mecca for connoisseurs of Bushy's Beer and the TT races. For years the temporary structure at the Bottle Neck Car Park has been synonymous with the TT fortnight. You can't say you've done the TT unless you've had a pint at the Bushy's Tent.

TT Grandstand, Douglas

Want to rub shoulders with fellow bike enthusiasts and even race winners? Whether you celebrate after the Senior TT with friends, or have a quiet pint before the races, soak up the thrilling atmosphere of being a part of road racing's most star-studded paddock.

Okell's Beer Tent, Douglas

A relatively new addition to the TT, the Okell's Beer Tent opposite the Villa Marina complex is a great stop on your TT journey. Nothing beats a pint on the prom, plus there's a great view of the TT entertainment.

The Creek, Peel

It may not be on the TT course but The Creek is one of the island's finest pubs. Offering food and a range of real ales, it's also in the shadow of the mighty Peel Castle. Kick back and enjoy a pint on Peel's picturesque harbour.

The Creg Ny Baa, Onchan

The Creg Ny Baa is an iconic pub and restaurant with one of the most spectacular views on the TT course. The bikes hurtle down towards The Creg from Kate's Cottage on the last miles of the Mountain Road. Another pub synonymous with the event, it is another must do for visitors and locals alike.

The Raven, Ballaugh

Situated at one of the TT's best known landmarks, Ballaugh Bridge, a pint in The Raven is another milestone for fans of the world's greatest road races. The riders launch themselves into the air over this small but very famous bridge.

Ginger Hall, Sulby

The next pub along from the Sulby Glen, Ginger Hall signifies the start of the run up to Ramsey and then on to the Mountain section. It's the last chance for a pint before heading into Parliament Square.

The Rover's Return, Douglas

Run by Bushy's, packed with character – and characters - this is a great pub for visitors and locals alike. Bushy's is inextricably linked with the TT and the Rover's oozes atmosphere.

Jaks, Douglas

Jaks is a lively pub all year round for beer, sport and music enthusiasts. It also has its own steakhouse! A great spot for town centre fun, it's opposite the bright lights of the TT funfair and the centre of the non-race action.
